

UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School
MBA Career and Leadership
Associate Director for Career and Leadership Coaching

The Associate Director of Career Coaching in the Career & Leadership for MBA & Alumni department is seeking a candidate to coach both Full-Time and Working Professional MBA students and alumni at UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School seeking jobs in a variety of industries. The Associate Director plans and delivers career planning and job search programming to MBA students in small-group formats, workshops, and large classroom/auditorium presentations, in-person and virtual. This position is also responsible for 1-on-1 and small group student career coaching. The Associate Director will also manage and participate in several career management-related initiatives and events throughout the year. The Associate Director reports to the Senior Associate Director of Career Coaching within the Career & Leadership for MBA & Alumni department. The position will work collaboratively with staff within Career Coaching, Employer Engagement & Recruiting, and Operations and numerous critical departments across the School, like BSBA Career Management, MAC Career Management, MBA Student Engagement, MBA Admissions, Centers of Excellence, and faculty, among others. For further information and to apply on-line, please access the following:

<https://unc.peopleadmin.com/postings/275204>