How to Contribute to an Inclusive Environment

Instructor: Kevin T. Davis

Achieving diversity remains a challenge for EMBA Programs throughout the world. You may have been assigned responsibility for executing initiatives to improve diversity in your programs. You may have a passion for diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) and want to make a difference. Yet you may ask yourself, "How can I have an impact on DEI without being the leader or decision-maker?" Using a case scenario in small groups and within the larger cohort, we will explore and discuss strategies for staff members and new employees to help create an inclusive environment.

DAY 3: Wednesday, January 13

How to Influence and Win Key Stakeholders

Instructor: Elmer Almachar

The success of initiatives can be won or lost based on how well you align the people and stakeholders involved. In this session, you will learn how to influence and align key stakeholders to get them to work on behalf of your initiatives, programs, and/or collective efforts. We will teach you how to identify blockers, advocates, and new voices and to understand the underlying dynamics for each persona. We also will explore strategies to manage each stakeholder type and win them to your side.

DAY 4: Monday, January 18

Presenting You!

Instructor: Louise Kapustka

As you navigate the expectations of students, faculty, and program leadership, along with the daily and ad hoc challenges you and your team face, what unique qualities and contributions do you bring to your program, school, or university? How do those qualities and contributions help students? How do they help deliver on your program's raison d'être? In this session, participants will identify and reflect on their personal and professional values, experiences, and contributions to understand and construct their Personal Brand Statement.

DAY 5: Tuesday, January 19

Building Relationships Across the Enterprise

Instructor: Barbara A. Millar

As a team member responsible for delivering results, navigating your relationships with your leaders, as well as your peers, can be challenging – and rewarding. This session explores the keys to successfully manage relationships across and up the organizational chart. You will gain a better understanding of what gets in the way and how to change things up.

DAY 6: Tuesday, January 20

What if You Were Asked to Step-In and Lead?

Instructors: Elmer Almachar and Louise Kapustka

Whether driven by your school’s evolving needs during these extraordinary times, or the personal health issues of your team’s current leader, you have been asked to temporarily – for six months – assume leadership of your team. What is the leader’s “job to be done?” What skills do you have? Which skills will you need to supplement, and what resources are available? How will the team be impacted?
